Plaintiff,	)
	)	COMPLAINT
v.	)
PEARSON EDUCATION, INC.	)	DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL
Defendant.	)

Plaintiff Michael Keller ("Keller"), for his Complaint against Defendant Pearson Education, Inc. ("Pearson") alleges:

STATEMENT OF ACTION

1. This is an action for copyright infringement brought by Keller, the owner of copyrights to the photographs ("Photographs") described hereafter and originally licensed for limited use by Pearson, against Pearson for unauthorized uses of Plaintiff's photographs.

PARTIES

2. Keller is a professional photographer who makes his living by creating and licensing photographs. He resides in Beach Lake, Pennsylvania.

3. Pearson is a sophisticated global publisher with its principle place of business in Upper Saddle River, New Jersey. Pearson sells and distributes its publications in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania and throughout the United States, and overseas, including the publications and ancillary materials in which Plaintiff's photographs are unlawfully reproduced.

17-81P
th

At all times pertinent to the allegations herein, Pearson acted through or in concert with its various imprints, divisions, subsidiaries, affiliates, and/or third parties.

JURISDICTION

4. This is an action for injunctive relief, statutory damages, monetary damages, and interest under the copyright laws of the United States. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 (federal question) and 1338 (copyright).

VENUE

5. Venue is appropriate in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(a) and (b) and 28 U.S.C. §§ 1400(a).

FACTS COMMON TO ALL COUNTS

6. Keller is the owner of copyrights in the attached photographic images (“Photographs”) depicted in Exhibit 1.

7. As set forth in Exhibit 1, the Photographs have been registered with the United States Copyright Office.

8. Keller entered into a series of contractual agreements with The Stock Market (“TSM”), a stock-photo licensing agency, between 1988 and 2001, which authorized TSM to issue limited licenses for use of Keller’s images by third parties, in exchange for reasonable license fees. Keller’s TSM agreement was assigned to Corbis Corporation (“Corbis”) in or around 2001.

9. In 2003, Keller entered into a representation agreement with Corbis, which authorized Corbis to grant third parties limited use licenses for his photographs.

10. Upon information and belief, between 1991 and 2010, and in response to permission requests from Pearson, TSM and Corbis sold Pearson limited licenses to use copies of the Photographs in numerous educational publications. See Exhibit 1, which is a summary report of information from Keller’s royalty statements from TSM and Corbis. Exhibit 1 identifies Keller’s image ID; copyright registration number and date or application date; the TSM or Corbis Invoice number and date; and the Pearson imprint that licensed Keller's image(s). Exhibit 1 also identifies additional license information, including publication title and usage limitations, where known.

1. Upon information and belief, the licenses granted to Pearson from TSM and Corbis were expressly limited by number of copies, distribution area, image size, language, duration and/or media (print or electronic).

2. Upon information and belief, at the time Pearson represented to TSM and Corbis that it needed specified, limited licenses to use the Photographs in particular publications, Pearson often knew its actual uses would exceed the rights it was requesting and paying for.

3. Upon information and belief, shortly after obtaining the licenses, Pearson exceeded the licenses and infringed Keller's copyrights in the Photographs in various ways, including:

- a. printing more copies of the Photographs than authorized;
- b. distributing publications containing the Photographs outside the authorized distribution area;
- c. publishing the Photographs in electronic, ancillary, or derivative publications without permission;
- d. publishing the Photographs in international editions and foreign publications without permission;
- e. publishing the Photographs beyond the specified time limits.

4. Upon information and belief, after obtaining access to the Photographs, Pearson used the Photographs without any license or permission in additional publications that have not yet been identified. Because Pearson alone knows of these wholly unauthorized uses, Keller cannot further identify them without discovery.

5. Pearson alone knows the full extent to which it has infringed Keller's copyrights by making unauthorized uses of the Photographs, but Pearson has not shared this knowledge with Keller.

6. Other photographers and stock photography agencies have brought legal actions against Pearson alleging copyright infringement claims like those asserted by Keller in this action. Since 2009, Pearson has been sued for copyright infringement in furtherance of the scheme described herein in at least 30 actions.

7. On May 3, 2010, and January 13, 2011, Julie Orr, Pearson's Curriculum Group's Image Manager, Rights and Permissions, testified that Pearson had published photographs in its textbooks in some instances without obtaining any permission and had printed in excess of license limits in situations where licenses were obtained.

8. On June 16, 2010, Maureen Griffin, Pearson's Curriculum Group's Photo Commissions Editor, testified that Pearson had published photographs in its textbooks "before the FTP [file to printer] date" and that "the number of textbooks printed exceeded the licenses we obtained."

9. Pearson's own documents produced in parallel cases show that Pearson exceeded the licensed print quantities in the following publications in which Keller's photographs were used:

Pearson Publication	Licensed Print Amount	Actual Print Amount
Exploring Physical Science 2001	200,000	331,863
Anda! Curso Elemental (My Spanish Lab Series) 1/e by Heining-Boynton, Cowell, 2009	40,000	70,659

10. Pearson has been adjudicated a copyright infringer for engaging in the same practices that are alleged here. In Bean et al., v. Pearson Education, Inc., 949 F.Supp.2d. 941 (D. Ariz. 2013), Pearson was found liable on summary judgment for 418 claims of unauthorized uses of photographs in its textbooks. In Frerck v. Pearson Education, Inc., 63 F.Supp.3d 882 (N.D. Ill. 2014), Pearson was found liable on summary judgment for 343 claims of unauthorized uses of photographs in its textbooks.

11. All exhibits attached hereto are incorporated into this Complaint by this reference.

COUNT I

Copyright infringement against Pearson

12. Plaintiff incorporates herein by this reference each and every allegation contained in the paragraphs set forth above.

13. Pearson's use of the Photographs beyond license terms and without any license constitutes infringement of Plaintiff's copyrights in the Photographs in violation of 17 U.S.C. §§ 501 et seq.

14. Plaintiff suffered damages as a result of Pearson's unauthorized use of the Photographs.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests the following:

1. A preliminary and permanent injunction against Defendants and anyone working in concert with Defendants from copying, displaying, distributing, selling or offering to sell Plaintiff's Photographs described in this Complaint and Plaintiff's photographs not included in suit.

2. As permitted under 17 U.S.C. § 503, impoundment of all copies of Plaintiff's Photographs used in violation of Plaintiff's exclusive copyrights as well as all related records and documents and, at final judgment, destruction or other reasonable disposition of the unlawfully used Photographs, including digital files and any other means by which they could be used again by Defendants without Plaintiff's authorization.

3. An award of Plaintiff's actual damages and all profits derived from the unauthorized use of Plaintiff's Photographs or, where applicable and at Plaintiff's election, statutory damages.

4. An award of Plaintiff's reasonable attorneys' fees.

5. An award of Plaintiff's court costs, expert witness fees, interest and all other amounts authorized under law.

6. Such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff demands a trial by jury of all issues permitted by law.

DATED: July 7, 2016
